One of the prettiest home weddings of the season occurred last evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the brides' parents on Seventh and Jefferson streets, when Miss Jessie L. Edson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Edson and Mr. Charles T. McCabe, son of Mrs. C. H. McCabe were united in marriage. The house was profusely decorated in palms, or's messenger. wild smilex and carysanthemums. It was a pink and white wedding and the chestra, which was screened behind a banking of palms, played the strains of an original wedding march composed of two favorite airs of the brids, D. K. E. Waltz and Angel Serenade, and the bridal party descended the stairs and entering the front parlor stationed themselves in the east end of the room. The bride was attended by Miss Mary McCabe and the groom by Mr. M. F. Murphy. Dr. F. S. McCabe pronounced the solomn and beautiful ring service of the Presbyterian church.
